The Sports Meet was organised with the aim to encourage the Alumni to participate in various sports activities and build a strong relationship with the institute and its students.

Dr Sridhara Shetty, Principal of SM Shetty College - Powai, during the inauguration of sports meet said that, "India has always had the ability to bounce back stronger out of whatever crisis we have faced. And this pandemic is no different. We, as Indians, will do our best to live our lives in the new normal to our full potential. And this sports meet has been organised with the same spirit."

While talking to 'Planet Powai', Rohini Shetty - Head of Sports Department of SM Shetty College, Powai said, "Ever since the lockdown restrictions have started easing up, the college has been trying to do something for the students while strictly following COVID-19 protocols. And we wish to nurture our students the same way we used to before the COVID-19 crisis."

Dr Sridhara Shetty - Principal, Vice Principals - Dr Liji Santhosh and Prof Sandesha Shetty, Prof. Sahana Raviprasad - Alumni Association in charge and Ms Rohini Shetty - Head of Sports Department, Alumni Association Core Committee members - Armand D'Costa, Javed Khan, Ms Jasvyot Kaur, Chandan Gupta were present during the event. In total 48 Alumni's and 12 Sports Core committee members actively participated in the event. Winning team, 1st runner up and 2nd runner up teams were awarded with trophies, medals and T-Shirts.

Alumni assistance in career guidance and placement

Alumni are invited by various departments to share their experience and knowledge and work experience. It helps the current students become aware about the industry expectations and also career opportunities. These interactions also help students get an idea of future prospects of a particular course and helps them decide on their specialization. The Alumni are proactive in providing internship and placement opportunities for the current students. They extended information on such openings for our students and also actively share any lead for recruitment from our college.

Alumni assistance in Skill development

Alumni engage in interaction with the students and provide the much needed Industry interface. They periodically share their professional and entrepreneurial experiences with the students. Each department invited their Alumni to share knowledge and expertise. During the two years of lockdown the Alumni incorporated online media to extend their services to the college. They take up topics related to their area of expertise. Some of the skill sharing topics undertaken are: Personality Development, Personal Grooming, Community based start up, Financial literacy, Graphic designing etc.
