Date: 24/07/2018.

Venue: RBI Monetary Museum and Banking Hall

Time: 11:00 am

The Department of Economics had organized a one day visit to RBI museum and banking hall on 24th July for third year students of B.Com. The students were taken to RBI's office at CST along with two teachers Prof. Pooja Pandey and Prof. Sandesha Shetty. The students reached the venue by 11:00 am and visited the lecture hall where they had watched a documentary on the evolution of currency in India. They also attended a lecture delivered by Mr. Radhakrishnan who educated students on the functioning of the RBI.

The students visited the RBI museum where they saw the currency in different form in India and various other forms of money used since ages in India. The students also saw the determination of exchange rate (live) which was displayed on an electronic board.

Later, the students also visited the RBI's banking hall where they saw minting of the coins. The students also learnt the various techniques of identifying the real currency which is in circulation. They also exchanged the coins in the banking hall.

The visit was truly very informative and educative wherein the students made utmost utilization of the opportunity to sharpen their analytical skills.

Seminar on “Overview of Drugs & Their Harmful Effects”

Date:26th June,2018

Mr. Kulbhushan Singh
Intelligence Officer,
Narcotics Control Bureau,
Mumbai Zonal Unit

26 June which is observed as “International Day against Drug Abuse & Illicit Trafficking”, a seminar was conducted by Accountancy Association of Bunts Sangha’s S.M.Shetty College Science, Commerce & Management Studies, Powai. Mr. Kulbhushan Singh, an Intelligence officer of Narcotics Control Bureau (Mumbai Zonal Unit) empowered the students about the ‘Overview of Drugs & Their Harmful Effects.’

The seminar helped the students to know how rapidly the drug intakes are taking place in the today’s youth without knowing its adverse effect. A whole list of harmful effects were discussed, whether it physical harm, occupational / financial harm, social harm, psychological harm or legal harm. This interactive session helped the students not only to know about the drug abusing and illicit trafficking but also how firm they should be to say no to drugs even when forced by their nearest or dearest ones. The seminar empowered the youth about the increasing drugs intake and how they effect the whole system which has to be stopped by saying “NO TO DRUGS”.

17th January, 2019

Date :- 17th January, 2019

Time : 7:30 AM

Venue: Av Room

Event : Workshop on LGBTQ and their reporting in media

Organised by :- Department of Mass Media & Communication Skills

Trainer : Ms Richa Vashisht – A mental health professional specializing in LGBTQ+ issues, associated with Love Matters.

Objective : To enhance the role of the media in sensitising society about LGBTQ+ issues

Report : The workshop cleared many misconceptions about Sex and Gender and busted myths about the community as well.

It was a very interactive session with the students of the department. Ms Richa enthusiastically answered every question and urged everyone to read and make themselves aware about LGBTQ+ and explained the various terms and how one must use one's preferred pronouns and to never assume their Gender or Sexual orientation.

Overall, it was an eye-opener and an extremely informative session that shed light on issues that are still a taboo in our society.

Event : Youth Talk

Organised by :- Department of Mass Media & Communication Skills

Objective : To provide a platform for the students to voice their views and opinions.

Report : Youth Talk is an event organized by the Department of Mass Media & Communication Skills

Media Club – The Studio for the students of our college to voice their views and opinions. Few of the students from all different departments volunteered to be on the panel to talk about India Vs Pakistan issue over Kashmir.

Various issues like Pulwama Attack, Terrorism, and Human Rights were highlighted by students and questions like "Was India's retaliation justified with the recent Pulwama Attack?", "Was this a BJP propaganda?" were raised.

Overall, the event helped the students to gain more knowledge regarding the subject and experience the different views and opinions of the panellists.

Hello Neena , here goes!

Get Real!

An Industry Relevant Orientation Program for UnderGrad Students.

Will cover basics of what to realistically expect in Communication fields as Advertising, Digital Marketing, Creative Design, Experiential Marketing & Events.

90-120 mins sessions that will involve a talk, Q&A and case studies to build a realistic perspective on whats going on in the agencies & organizations so that the undergrad student has clarity on 'what to focus on & how to prepare' to be relevant when one steps out to start making a living in a profession of one's choice.

The contents of the talk will be specific to the syllabus of the undergrad year and will aim to trigger talking points for students to pursue further during their course studies.

Each talk will be followed by a 2 hour case studies sessions where specific projects executed will be discussed in details.

Industry examples will include brands from the field of Retail, RealEstate, Malls, Education, Automobiles and cover occasions as Festivals, Promotions & Launches.

Will look to evaluate students on key parameters to help them understand better areas of strenghts and more importantly areas of improvement.

MARK MY PRODUCT
CAPSULE ACTIVITY
DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES

The capsule activity “Mark My Product” was organized by the Department of Management Studies for FYBMS (B) students on 31/1/19 in their classroom. The activity was organized by Prof. Nidhi Chandorkar.

The students were grouped in 6 groups and were given the products with unconventional market setting. They were asked to give it a brand name, logo, tagline, give specific features to product, determine right pricing, identify best combination of media for promotion and also create an attractive Jingle.

Each group presented their marketing plan and also sang the jingle for the entire class.

The activity was conducted to develop an insight for marketing for FMCG products and students can also exhibit their creativity.

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES

SYBMS (A) – EVENT MANAGENT AND IMC ACTIVITY

Under the courses: Event Marketing and IMC, an activity was conducted for the students for SY BMS (A). For their assignment; students were instructed to organize an event for the students of the college. Objective of the study was to make students understand the practicality and applicability of the event management concepts that they learn throughout the course.

From the class strength of 61 students, three groups were made consisting of 20, 20 and 21 students each. Students were supposed to pick a product that they want to endorse or promote through their event. Type of event should be appropriate enough to compliment the nature of product promoted and demography of the attendee base (students and teachers). All the students of each group contributed Rs 150 each; which became their budget to organize the event. Students started right from deciding the product, naming the product, deciding the type of event, naming the event, marketing of product and the event, designing and displaying posters, promotion on social media and other means, arranging any raw material and supporting accessories they require for food preparation and games management. On three different allotted dates, each team carried out the event on the 7th floor common area of the college.

Every activity/aspect related to Event management and marketing was assessed under Event Marketing course by Prof. Prachi Agarwal whereas all the activities related to marketing of products and events were assessed under IMC course by Prof. Vijay Vishwakarma. On the respective date of their event, each team was given 1.5 hours (10:30 am – 12 pm) for the preparation of event and then the team conducted the event from 12 pm to 1:30 pm.

Three groups picked three different food products i.e. Bread, popcorn and cheese rolls with Event names as 'DejaVu', 'Just Pop'd' and 'Foodelico' respectively. In the events, students organized various fun games, movie for students and teachers along with their food product. Team issued tickets to students to buy food and participate in the games. Whatever the amount they collected was counted as their revenue from the event. All the teams successfully covered their cost and earned the profit (which was distributed among the team members). Students were also responsible for maintain the discipline during the event, taking feedback from attendees and clearing the venue post event.

REPORT ON THE ART OF PRESENTATION

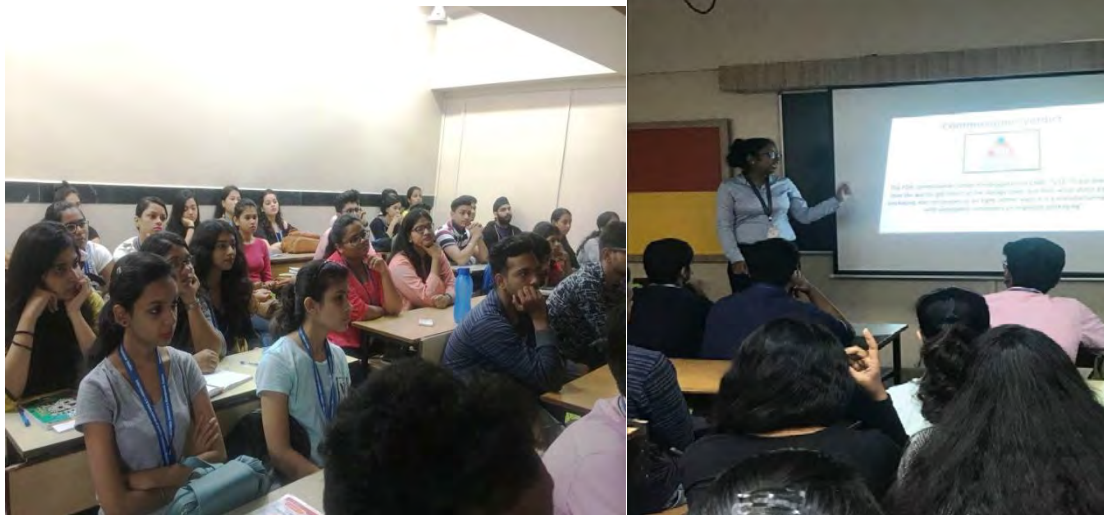

7TH AUGUST, 2018

The Department of Management Studies conducted an orientation session for the students of BMS on Power Point Presentation Skills on 3rd August, 2018.

The objective of this activity was to enable students to interact with the audience, transmit the messages with clarity, engage the audience in the presentation; and interpret and understand the mindsets of the listeners. These skills refine the way an individual puts forth messages and enhances persuasive powers used in the corporate world which is also beneficial for their internal assessments.

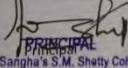

5 students of TYBMS having excellent oratory skills took an initiative to demonstrate 'The Art of Presentation' on an interesting topic related to Business Management to the students of SYBMS (Marketing & Finance). They were trained by Prof. Steffi Salve on speaking skills and techniques to design a PPT through which they highlighted the "Do's" of presentation techniques during their presentation. Thereafter, they were also given necessary tips to avoid mistakes while presenting a topic.

Report on "E-book Collection"

I.T Association and E-Waste Management Club

I.T Association has conducted E-book collection drive on 16th July, 2018 by Prof. Sujata Rizal in 5th floor I.T Lab. The main aim is to collect E-Books related to the syllabus of F.Y.BSc.I.T, S.Y.BSc.I.T and T.Y.BSc.I.T. All the books are being given by the students to the department during this drive. Department is having one blog smsbookbank.weebly.com where all the collected books are getting stored and anyone can access the required E-book from anywhere. This helps the students to learn many things related to their subject as well as the subject which is not their in syllabus but required as per the industry needs. The department is having more than 150 books in the blog given by the students since last three years.

Assessment:

It is a good initiative by IT association to increase the habit of going through online content which will increase their knowledge. program was successfully handled.

OBJECTIVE:

This event was organised to make prepare students for interview.

REPORT:

The IT association of our college organised an interactive session 'focUs, for the TYIT students 2018-19 who will now embark on a permanent journey through the massive pathway called as the 'INTERVIEW' on 28th October, 2018 in the 5th floor IT lab between 11:30 am to 1pm.

All the students were introduced to the HR. Person Ms. Smita Saraf-Senior Talent acquisition. She briefed the students about how the interviews are going to take place. What all things the students have to remember while going for an interview were also been briefed to the students. They placed their questions regarding the same in front of the HR. Person. The session was interactive and the students got a chance to freely ask their questions. The session motivated all the TYIT students. And evoked a confidence in them. In the end the HR. person was felicitated by Ms. Raveena Shetty as well the IT Association Representatives. The session was a great success.

Assessment:

Program was conducted to prepare our student for interview for their success in competitive world. Program conducted smoothly & student were happy & benefited.
