Horror cinema in India.

What is a good horror movie? One that gives you chills down your spine, a good adrenaline rush without relying too much on jump scares. Something thar scares you even after it's over. As an avid horror movie watcher, it is very difficult to find movies which keep on the edge throughout its runtime. Especially Bollywood horror movies. It might be a little hard to look for logic in horror movies as they're all fantasy based. However, when

As a child I really liked Bhool Bhulaiyaa, a remake (kind of a copy) of the south Indian movie Manichitrathazhu, however, having studied psychology for two years, the way they portray a psychological disorder and the way it is "solved" just makes me cringe. Even though it is an enjoyable movie even now, (Vidya Balan's dance scene was terrifying as a child and its still pretty scary to think of, which was also very well picturized) dialogues like "psychology is the only science without a definition" and completely curing a Dissociative Identity Disorder in a 10-15 minute scene trivializes such disorders.

Recently Netflix India, released a short series called 'Ghost Stories'. Each story was directed by different directors and you could really tell with the way they were filmed. Even though the stories were all mediocre and barely kept my interest, even making me skip the last story directed by Karan Johar, one of the stories caught my interest. It was a zombie based film directed by Dibakar Banerjee. It was a well written, well shot fil with an element of comedy, however ending with a cliché "it was all a dream" scene, which spoils the fun.

Most Indian horror movies have the same tropes, making the experience less enjoyable. The 'baba' or priest who comes to perform an exorcism but ends up dying too soon, the main character going on a quest to find the ghosts backstory and giving them a 'proper funeral'. You can just tell how it's going to end from the beginning. There is a lot of room for improvement in the horror genre.

There are movies which do keep you hooked like Karthik calling Karthik, which isn't really a horror

COVID WARRIORS

Covid or coronavirus has comes in December 2019. no one could have ever imagined that anything as small as this could change the life of living. school, college, trains, shops, fights, etc. everything was closed, or everything stopped or standstill. no one no what is going on or what we were about what we going to face. to fight this enemy, come forward our covid warriors or our covid heroes.

They are people just like you and me. they are there all around us doctors, nurses, workers, police, watchmen, shopkeepers, covid volunteers, etc. it was because of them we have able to fight with such threatening situations. they worked selflessly day to day out for his because of our lives. they all risk our life because of 135 crores of people's lives.

Doctors and nurses worked day and night, staying away from their families so that could be treated and get back to their families.police stayed outside their houses so that we could be safe inside our houses. covid warriors stay outsides his house because of our safety

What is Mutual Fund?
KRISHA
A mutual fund is a common pool of money into which investors put their contributions to be invested in accordance with a stated objective.
Investors get mutual fund units, on a proportionate basis, for the sum contributed to the pool. Fund belongs to all unit holders.
The funds are managed by professional fund managers.
In an age where investment no longer is confined to a savings account or a few fixed deposits, mutual funds have come a long way.
Investors prefer mutual funds as managing them can be way easier than handling stocks or bonds individually.
