Report on “Financial Inclusion and Financial Literacy Workshop ” by Department of Economics

Date: 23/07/2018.

Venue: Room No.608

Time : 11:00 am

The Department of Economics had organised a one day workshop for students on Financial Economics and Inclusion in India. The speaker of the session was Shree Kartik from Financial Inclusion and Development Department, Reserve Bank of India. He introduced to the students the relevance and need for financial inclusion. He also created awareness about the strategies adopted by the Reserve Bank to achieve financial literacy in India. He oriented students on financial literacy drive in India and the achievements made by India in this direction.

The session was very informative and concluded at 12:15pm.
