Report on Destination LSE – Session by London School of Economics

Date: 14th December 2019

Resource Person: Dr. James Abdey, LSE

Destination London School of Economics (LSE) was a much awaited career oriented programme for our undergraduate students. The programme was organised on 14th December, 2019 at 11 am in our auditorium. Around 250 students and faculty members have taken part in the programme. .

Careers in Economics can be an option for students of commerce and management. In order to provide an awareness on careers abroad, a session on 'Destination LSE' was organised by the department.

Dr. James Abdey, Associate Director, UOL Programme, LSE have taken a session on Careers at LSE. He also briefed on opportunities abroad in the areas of Accountancy, Economics, Management and Data Science.

Mr. Chirag Mehta, Associate Director, Indian School of Business and Finance was our other resource person who touched upon the areas of careers in Economics and Finance and also opportunities abroad for aspiring undergraduates.

Dr. Shashi Panicker, President Economics Club, Mumbai, Prof. Amit Joshi, Swami Vivekananda College Dombivli and few intercollegiate students who were inquisitive to learn abroad were Also present on this occasion

The session ended with vote of thanks by our student representative of Economics Club Ms. Shloka Shetty
