Report

Discussion Circle - 3

Discussion circle is an initiative of Department of Economics to create active discussion on current issues happening around the world economy by the students of Economics. This is an initiative during lockdown to engage the young minds through online. Monthly discussions happen on suggested topic by the students. This initiative by the students of Economics was endorsed by Principal Dr. Sridhara Shetty.

19/09/2020: "The Recovery Package- Stories from Germany & India":

Akshat Agarwal and Mrinalini Shrikant has presented an image boosting recovery stories during pandemics from Germany and India. The two women leaders of health have taken their respective states covid free for the period. This discussion has boosted the morale who were hitherto disappointed with the thought of Covid and its after impacts.

Learning outcome:

Development of oratory skill among the students and also to discuss and create awareness on current economic problems
