Story of KK Shailaja

Former Health Minister of Kerala, KK Shailaja or Shailaja Teacher is an example that will inspire young women to enter public service. She has been awarded the prestigious Central European University (CEU) Open Society Prize in recognition of her commitment to public health services. Her contribution in containing the epidemic situation (Nipaah & Covid-19) in Kerala is commendable and gives hope to nations in the developing world. Under her leadership, the state put in place a system to address the crisis, right when reports started coming about a potential virus spreading in Wuhan. Click on the below link to read more....

Story of Anshu Malik

No Indian woman had ever reached the summit clash of a World Wrestling Championship, no one has even come close as 19-year Anju Malik did by winning a silver in the finals. The journey, the heartbreaks and setbacks she endured to reach where she did, is a heartwarming narrative in itself. She had carried an elbow injury, which she had sustained in Tokyo, into the tournament, besides injuring her knee in the quarterfinals. Despite suffering an elbow injury in Tokyo Olympics, she trained at the village followed by training in the national camp to win the silver medal for India. Click on the below link to read more....

Report

Purpose / Objective: To celebrate womanhood by honouring the women who have contributed to the betterment of the society.

Internal Committee (I.C.) of the college started with a unique gesture of celebrating womanhood through the nine colors of Navratri from 17th to 25th October, 2020. A ppt presentation was made with the nine colours of Navratri and each day one woman was honoured for her work. The women who were honoured through this activity were Shanti Devi, Rahibi Soma Popere, CPRF Women Cobras, KK Shailaja, Ragini Kumari and Huma Khan, Mitali Madhumita, Neerja Bhanot, Savitribai Phule & Anshu Malik. The ppt was shared in various groups of students, teachers and non-teaching staff.
