

Report on 56th A.D. Shroff Memorial Elocution Competition

56th A.D. Shroff Memorial Elocution competition was organised by Department of Economics of Bunts Sangha's S.M. Shetty College of Science, Commerce and Management Studies, Powai on 15th November, 2022. The event was organised in audio visual room at 10.30 a.m.

There were 15 participants enrolled for the competition out of which 9 were selected for the final round. Invited judges for the competition were Dr. Shanti Acharya, Prof. Uday Vedak, and Prof. Adya Bharti.

Topics were sent by Forum and the same was intimated to students by sending notice in advance. Students spoke on the following topics given:

- Managing the Economy During A Pandemic;
- Making India A $5trillion Economy By 2027 (80 Years Of Independence);
- The Changing Role Of International Finance In Developing Economies;
- The Menace of Increasing Cyber Crimes and Solution.

The event began by an introduction to the event by Dr. Liji Santosh, the event in charge. Participants spoke within the allotted time for elocution.

The winners of the participants were announced by the judges. First prize was won by Ms. Anam Chaudhary of TYBAMMC, Second prize by Mr. Ritesh Singh of TYBAMMC and third prize by Mr. Kenneth of FYBAF . Fourth and fifth positions were bagged by Matharu Simartha Kaur and Ms. Preethi Shetty.

The events got end with vote of thanks

GLIMPSES

